אבבא, our heavenly Father, who is unceasingly, tirelessly caring for His creation in the whole Universe, is presented by Jesus, the Word that became flesh. Literally, The Word, which pitched His Tent among us. This Word was sent to us as a Bearer of the Good Tidings. He is knocking on the door of my heart because there is selfishness, pride and sin – gross darkness. He longs to talk to me and reveal something to me. Will I open to Him? He comes in as a breeze of fresh air, real Breath of Life for my dying soul. This revelation is unexpected, surprising, actually shocking! One, whose hands had formed me, He allowed to be nailed to the wood of the cross by my hands, my impure thoughts – they got Him there! Thunderstruck by such self-sacrificing love I feel how He draws me to Him. I separate from this world of selfish pleasures, and for the first time enter into Sabbath resting together with Him. He protects me from the evil one, just as Noah was protected in the ark. He invites me into His Sanctuary, into the most private circle of those who love Him. After such amazing conversion – my return to God through revelation of Christ’s sacrifice – my life starts to yield first fruits of His Spirit and my everyday life revolves around Him. He keeps forming me as the Potter forms a vessel from clay. Yes, You are stretching Your almighty arms towards me. I clearly recognize them because there are marks from the crucifixion on them. Now You are mine and I am Yours. I am placing my palm into Yours and submit myself to Your leading. You are my Shepherd and my King! I love You now and trustingly obey. You are inviting me to live a remarkable life. You call me to walk even on waters, testing how far I am willing to trust You. You have planted seeds of love into my heart. Your Words are filling me up and awakening the noblest motives. I got new vitality. I want to live to the fullest for You. When I am falling, You constantly support me and let me mature until the judgment comes. You search deeply my heart and my motives, whether You can trust me and accept me into Your Kingdom. Your confidence in me nourishes my trust in You. You are unceasingly watching over me. When there is still any uncleanness in me, again You talk to my soul to turn me away from evil intentions. Repeatedly You are awakening in me the desire for You until, as the Shulamite from the Song of Songs, I will start to seek after You on my own. Although I cannot see You yet face to face, I long for Your second Advent when no one and nothing will separate us! You are my greatest Treasure. You are my Head. Lead me on. My yearning after You consumes me. I burn the bridges behind me. I do not intend to return back to the sinful world. I follow You and each step I take, I am closer to meet with You. Your cross became above all to me. Together, with You, I suffer misunderstanding, rejection, even hatred. All the while I love these people and I serve them, inspired by Your love. I, myself, came out from among them. I do not exalt myself because I know full well from what a life of sin and selfishness you saved me. They are my family, You are sending me back to them. I knock on their door with Your Word. You wish to reveal also to them the goodness of our Father and invite them the wedding of the Lamb... Will they open?
